

A friend once said,

"...I sometimes think that music has gone as far as it can go and it's all now just re-treads of the same old crap. Where in the past you can see influences from the past, now it just seems there are no influences just imitators..."

I tend to disagree.

1987-1992 were the years that I listened to music the most.

From Soft Machine, The Orb to The Black Dog. I always had something to put on the record player before I went to sleep.

This EP goes out to the City of Salem, MA for giving me the space to explore my musical boundaries.
